Contest Description:

For Hogtoberfest we will again be sharing the track with London Longboards which not only helps out by splitting the costs but in turn ensures that we keep the entry fee down thus encouraging better participation. The freeride/DH element also ensures the facilities are used to the max over the weekend! There will be an opportunity for riders to try out street luge too as Will Stevenson (as seen on Channel 4 TV's "Famous and Fearless") will be running some clinics and be on hand to share his experiences. There will also be a number of slide clinics catering for all abilities.
