Contest Description:

This is the annual Oregon State Games, an Olympic-style competition of various sports sponsored by the Oregon Amateur Sports Foundation. Slalom skateboarding has been a part of the games for 5 years with growing participation each year. 3 age groups compete for GOLD SILVER BRONZE in 4 events over two days. This event has attracted both first-time local riders as well as seasoned experienced riders from California, Washington, and Canada. Racers like getting in LOTS of runs with a pleasant low-hassle atmosphere.

For ISSA purposes, these are run as one large OPEN grouping.

For the purposes of the Oregon State Games medals, the top racers in 4 age groups will be awarded GOLD, SILVER, BRONZE medals. (Under-18, Adults, 45-and-over).

Salem Soap Box Derby Hill:

This is the Salem Soap Box Derby Track. Ultra smooth and fast, the surface is a 10/10, it is 600 feet of moderately-steep pitch, then 340 feet of low pitch, followed by 450 feet of flat run out. No foot braking is required. See here: http://www.salemsbd.org/salem's\_track.htm This is located in a city park with bathrooms at the top of the hill, shade trees, and picnic tables. The hill is surrounded by inclines on each side which provide excellent views of the race track without the need for bleachers.

Costs:

Events 1-4: $10/event for adults, $7/event for Jrs (18 and under)

Events 5,6: $5/event (Kids races)

Race Event #1 Giant Slalom: (Salem) (Saturday)

Giant Slalom (Single-Lane). Held at the lovely and scenic Bush's Pasture Park (soap box derby hill) in Salem Oregon. Seasoned racers will reach approx 30 mph on the A course. The course setter will be John Stryker, Corey Moy, or Skip Marcotte. 10 cone MAX allowance before DQ

Race Event #2 Hybrid Slalom: (Salem) (Saturday)

Hybrid slalom 70-cone event with cone spacing between 7 and 12 feet, with offsets, curves, and rhythm changes throughout the course. Racers will get 1 run in each lane (best single time counts) for the qualifying. In the Head-to-Head racing, brackets A (top 8); B (2nd 8); and C (lower 16) will be formed. Course setter will be Paul Howard. 10 cone MAX allowance before DQ

Race Event #3 Tight Slalom: (Salem) (Sunday)

Tight slalom race of approx 90 cone length, approx 24 second duration. Cones will be spaced approx 6.5ft for the "A" course and 8ft for the "B" course (75 cones). Each competitor will get 2 runs through the course (3 if time permits) and the single best run counts for the final placing. 10 cone MAX allowance before DQ. NOTE: This year the course is not 100 cones and it is not straight.

Race Event #4 Peter Ramirez Memorial Slalomcross: (Salem) (Sunday)

This event was the favorite of Peter Ramirez in his 1st slalom race. Sadly, Peter died after while skateboard training in 2008. We will remember Peter by racing hard, racing fast, and racing safely.

Hybrid slalom course at the beginning and end. In the middle of the course, the skaters will share the same open GS-style gates. In this event, the competitors will run a single head-to-head race with the 1st to the finish line the winner in a ladder-bracket arrangement. Higher qualifying racer gets to choose the lane.

Race Event #5 Kids/Beginner Giant Slalom: (Salem, Saturday)

Giant Slalom (Single-Lane). Held at the lovely and scenic Bush's Pasture Park (soap box derby hill) in Salem Oregon. Beginner racers and kids will reach approx 15 mph on a shorter GS course. No racing experience required. Ideal for the 1st-time racer! Sponsored by RAZOR. Helmet give-away raffle!

Race Event #6 Kids/Beginner Hybrid Slalom: (Salem, Sunday)

Hybrid Slalom (Single-Lane). Held at the lovely and scenic Bush's Pasture Park (soap box derby hill) in Salem Oregon. Beginner racers and kids will reach approx 12mph on a shorter HS course. No racing experience required. Ideal for the 1st-time racer! Sponsored by RAZOR. Helmet give-away raffle!
