Contest Description:

For the sixth year in a row, Grenoble will host the biggest French slalom event of the year. The organization as full support from local authorities who will give to the event a large coverage. The pics below shows 2010 4m*3m posters setted all around the city.

The organization crew already prove in the past his capacity to host a high level event : indoor spot in case of rain, impressive infrastructure with speakers, DJ's, partner's area, miniramp and other sports demonstration (BMX, roller...).

This year, a large concert is schedule on Saturday evening.

Tight and special slalom:

Tight and special slalom will take place on Saturday and Sunday, as usual, in the “Olympic Speed Ring”, in the heart of Grenoble.

Training will start around 9h30 and competition will start at 11. A large audience will be there to watch for the show, especially for the finals.

Expected Schedule on saturday

09h30 13h00 – trainings & qualifications

14h00 17h00 – head to head finals

Expected Schedule on sunday

09h00 12h30 – trainings & qualifications

13h30 16h30 – head to head finals

The spot is flat, approx. 150 meters long. Surface is near perfect, grippy and fast. In 2010, Janis Kuzminz broke the 50 cones world record on this spot.

Giant slalom :

Giant slalom will take place on a new spot at Saint-Martin le Vinoux, few minutes by car from the city center.

It will start on Friday at noon.

The road is long approx 700m with a better surface, and safer than the previous one
